Settle in Australia with confidence

Welcome to Settlement Services Down Under

Settlement Service Down Under specializes in offering seamless resettlement solutions customized to your individual requirements. We recognize that moving to a new country is about more than just securing a visa; it's about receiving full support to facilitate a smooth transition to life in Australia. Our services cover everything from accommodation and employment to comprehensive resettlement assistance, providing a single source for all your migration necessities.

Our approach is simple yet effective. We begin with an initial consultation to assess your needs and understand your unique situation. This allows us to outline a tailored plan for your successful transition to life in Australia. We handle every aspect of your relocation, ensuring that your move is smooth and hassle-free.

From securing housing to helping you find employment and integrating into your new community, we provide comprehensive support every step of the way. Our dedicated team manages all the details, including arranging transportation, setting up utilities, and providing guidance on local amenities and services. With Settlement Service Down Under, you can trust that every detail of your move is managed with expertise and care, ensuring a seamless and successful transition to your new life in Australia.

"A big congratulations to Amritpal Singh Gill on obtaining Australian citizenship! We're delighted to have supported you all the way."

Meet Ashlie Skudder, Your Settlement Specialist

Ashlie Skudder has become a cornerstone of our Settlement Services team. Ashlie boasts a remarkable 100% success rate in accommodation placements, a testament to her dedication and expertise. Drawing from her extensive background in customer service and administration, Ashlie offers a streamlined approach to securing rental homes in Australia.

Ashlie's own migration experience from New Zealand eight years ago gives her a unique perspective on the physical, mental, and emotional challenges of relocating. She not only helps clients find a home but also supports them in settling into their new life with ease and comfort. Her comprehensive support includes understanding housing preferences, guiding through lease agreements, and even arranging virtual tours when physical inspections aren't possible. Ashlie's commitment extends beyond finding a home; she assists with setting up utilities, locating local amenities, and integrating clients into their new community.

“I have been working with Amanda for almost a year now since I have lodge my application for Australia in 2022. She has been amazing in all aspect of her role and as an individual. While I was so scared and panicked of not getting a job before the end of 2023 she assured me that we will land one before the holidays and walllaahhh we did! She was in constant communication with me keeping me up to date in all the things that’s happening. And didn’t even made feel like I was a client. It was more of like I am part of her family. Thats how amazing she is. Thank you Amanda for all your hard work.”
